

Margaret Elaine (Fisher) Field

1951 - 2014

Margaret Elaine (Fisher) Field, 63, of Seattle passed away July 8, 2014, at Northwestern Hospital in Seattle due to a heart attack.

Maggie was born Feb. 25, 1951, in St. Helens, Ore. She grew up in Rainier, where she attended Rainier Elementary school and graduated with the Rainier Union High School class of 1969. She married Jerry Field in August 1978. He preceded her in death July 7, 1999.

Maggie was employed with Eco Enterprises in Seattle for more than 30 years and was still employed at the time of her passing. Maggie enjoyed the company of her dogs throughout the years and looked forward to their greeting after her work day.

Maggie overcame several struggles, including caring for her ailing husband and surviving breast cancer through 1990s and early 2000s.

Maggie is survived by her father, Dale E. Fisher in Oregon; her mother, Margaret "Peggy" Fisher in Washington; a son and daughter-in-law, Erik and Lori Saari in California; three brothers and a sister-in-law, Richard Fisher in Texas, Timothy and Juanita Fisher in Washington, and James Fisher, also of Washington; two grandchildren, Derik and Kaley Saari, both in California; four nieces; two nephews; three great-nephews; and two great-nieces.

A memorial service is planned for 11 a.m. Saturday at Riverfront Park in Rainier. All are encouraged to celebrate Maggie's life.

Arrangements are by Barton Family Funeral Services, Seattle.

From The (Longview, WA) Daily News

Jul 23, 2014

https://tdn.com/lifestyles/announcements/recent_deaths/margaret-e-maggie-field/article_dbc6f4fc-1273-11e4-8ddc-0019bb2963f4.html?utm_medium=social&utm_source=email&utm_campaign=user-share