

Clara Elizabeth (Hyde) Kipp

September 10, 1951 - December 12, 2010

Clara passed peacefully from this life on the morning of December 12, 2010. Though her passing was unexpected, she was recently diagnosed with MS after battling various health issues over the past four years.

Clara enjoyed spending time with her family, the pride of her life. She especially adored her grandchildren, spoiling them any chance she could and bragging about her children to anyone who would listen. She loved to joke around-ready to pounce with a good zinger or two or play a prank on any unsuspecting person. She enjoyed crafts and was a skilled quilter, creating various blankets, pillow cases, and other works of art for her family and friends. She had the ability to strike up a conversation with a complete stranger and make any friend feel like family. Clara was born in Ely, NV and grew up in Rainier, OR. She has lived in Washington for the past 27 years.

Clara is survived by her loving husband of 34 years, David W. Kipp and her three children (and spouses): Angelique E. Mishler (C. Dennis Mishler), Jared T. Kipp (Marcia Kipp) and Tammi M. Kipp; four grandchildren, Sarrah R. Conner, Tiffany E. Conner, Regina Elizabeth S. Kipp, Jared Vinicius S. Kipp. Clara is also survived by her brothers Raymond, Dale, Dennis, and John, and her sister Kathy. She was preceded in death by her first husband, the late Therman Pellham Jr, and her mother and father E. Ellen and Kenneth Hyde.

A graveside memorial service will be held on Friday, December 17th, 2010 at 2:00 p.m. Location: Napavine Cemetery, Napavine, WA. A reception will follow at the home of Angie and Dennis Mishler.
